

FAQs on Asian Wealth Community

What is Asian Wealth Community?

Asian Wealth Community is an industry association for family offices, professional investors and stakeholders in the Asia Pacific wealth eco-system.

While we started off as a small community having social monthly lunch meetings in 2013 with over 40+ members. Since opening our membership and AWC has evolved with:

- 5k+ members
- a subscriber database of 19k
- 6 active clubs

(CEO, FinTech, Gold, Investors, Million, Asean Opportunity Network)

Thanks to support of our foundation members and various government agencies, we continue to build an open community with our members and partners.

Our members include accredited investors, family offices, private & investment bankers, investment advisers, wealth managers, lawyers, trustees and other professionals in real estate, PE/VC and FinTech.

What are AWC's mission?

We are starting as a small community and growing together with the wealth boom in Asia. As an industry association for private wealth, we are about connecting and education as Asia get wealthier.

While we operate in all part of Asia, we are actively building a platform that connects investors in China, Hong Kong, Singapore and Indonesia.

Our mission:

- Community connecting stakeholders in the private wealth eco-system
- Opportunities via business connections and social networking
- Platform for dialogue on generational wealth transfer, regulation, tax, compliance & fintech
- Society in supporting social partnership and corporate responsibility
